Special Edition – January 2008

Thank you from the Allisons!

Almost There!

Why are we surprised when God provides for us?! We are simply amazed at His provision for us over the past few weeks. With just two weeks before our first fundraising goal, God has used our wonderful, Christian family to provide almost 80% of our needs. Thank you all for your generosity!

Our first goal is to reach $1575 by January 31st in order to book our flight to Thailand. We only need $190/month more or a one-time gift of $1140.

Our second goal is to meet our full budget by February 15, two weeks before our departure. That means we would need only $200 more a month if you help us meet our first goal!

Our final goal is initiate conversations with churches who might be interested in either supporting or overseeing our work in Cambodia in 2009. If you know or are a part of any congregation interested in bringing the gospel to Asia, please help us meet each other!

May God bless each of you for your encouragement and willingness to give to God's mission in Thailand and Cambodia!

Special Thanks

We know none of those who have committed to supporting us did so for recognition. Many of you, in fact, specifically asked not to be named. You, however, know who you are. Please accept our heartfelt thanks. We are touched by the generosity of current students and old friends from Harding, our dear family, missionaries, our family at Hillcrest, and even distant acquaintances. Thank you for giving so that the people of Southeast Asia might hear the saving news of Jesus Christ.

Fundraising Goals
